

WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS!

The TAGB squad of 25 black belts swept aside all before them at the Global Tae Kwon Do Goodwill championships at Meadow bank Sports Centre, Edinburgh on the weekend of the 15th/16th May.

Competing against fighters from Global tae kwon do federation and fighters from all 3 ITF groups, the TAGB proved once again to be in a different league to our rivals.

Winning 4 of the 5 women's black belt divisions and coming 2nd in the other, and winning all 5 of the mens black belt divisions.

Congratulations to:

Normi Jamaludin	Gold
Tamsen Clarke	Gold
Lyndsay Williams	Gold
Jessical Howells	Gold
Claire Sharples	Silver.

And to the men:

Joseph Schrembri	Gold
Tyrrell Belony	Gold
Andrew Deer	Gold
Tim Chow	Gold
Basa Ince	Gold

They then went onto win the mens and womens team event as well!!

The winning ladies team was:

Tamsen Clarke, Jessica Howells, Claire Sharples, Lindsay Williams and Sian Davies.

The men's team was: Gordon Fearn, Tyrrell Belony, Andrew Deer, Warren Vice and James McGinn.

So the TAGB swept the board!

Congratulations to Team manager Dave Oliver and team coach Kenny Walton.

The TAGB teams are now the current Tae Kwon Do International champions, the current WASCO world champions and the current 'Clash of the Titans Champion of Champions team'!
